Spiritual Characterization of Leadership and the impact of revival on a society

With virtually the same number of administrations, the life-span the southern Kingdom of Judah is 66% longer than her northern sister's. Forty percent of Judah's kings are reported to have having done “what was right in the sight of the LORD.” Four of them were used by God to bring about spiritual revival.

Over the 207 year history of the northern Kingdom of Israel, each of the nineteen administrations was characterized as having done “evil in the sight of the LORD.”
